Safety measures in Paris

- Staff in Paris CEA Office contracted by the University of Arizona provide 24-hour assistance in case of emergency. They also have a comprehensive emergency response plan which interfaces with the University of Arizona Health and Safety plans.

- Faculty and staff in French and Italian and Arizona Global are always monitoring the situation in Paris carefully and will make any adjustments to program activities as needed.
Safety measures in Paris

* Up-to-date practical advice regarding safety will be included in your orientation at the UA prior to departure and again once you arrive in France.

* The French government has implemented heightened security measures.

* While we want you to be vigilant and prepared to deal with possible incidents, don’t let it overshadow your experience; it is unlikely you or the program will be affected as incidents are rare.
Cost

* Projected cost for 2022 is approx. $8,000*

* Cost billed to Bursar’s account includes:
  * Tuition (6 units of UAZ credit)
  * Housing with a French family
  * Breakfast and three (3) dinners per week
  * International medical insurance
  * All excursions and group activities (museums, visits) and meals during day excursions

* *Cost subject to change based on number of participants and exchange rate fluctuations
